

For 2024, Black History Month celebrates "African Americans and the Arts", exploring the influence that African Americans have had on music, visual and performing arts, culinary arts and culture. The Smithsonian Institution has a plethora of celebratory events Click HERE for more information.

The National Women's History Month's theme for 2024 celebrates "Women Who Advocate for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion." The theme recognizes women throughout the country who understand that, for a positive future, we need to eliminate bias and discrimination entirely from our lives and institutions. Celebrate International Women's Day on March 8, 2024. Click HERE for more info.

Getting it from The Source

Greetings from
PAT HALL JAYNES,
SPHR, SHRM-SCP, CEO, THE HR SOURCE

In February and March, as we celebrate Black History Month and Women's History Month, we recognize and honor the contributions and achievements of African American and women trailblazers who have broken barriers and helped shape our society throughout history.

At The HR SOURCE, we recognize and embrace the importance of diversity and inclusion as a core value within our organization. Together, let's continue to create environments where everyone feels valued, respected, and empowered to thrive.

HR Resource Groups

A proven way to grow professionally is to engage with organizations and utilize valuable resources to expand your network. In celebration of Black History Month and Women's History Month, we are sharing a few suggested organizations to jump start connections for African Americans and women in HR.

National Association of African Americans in Human Resources: The NAAHR exists to provide a unique global forum for the career development of Black and African American human resources professionals.

Black in HR: Founded in 2017, the mission is to create a one stop shop for professionals of color to learn, grow and network by offering coaching, courses and leadership development opportunities.

HR Girlfriends: HR Girlfriends makes it possible for the women of Human Resources to connect for knowledge sharing, resource swapping, professional development and personal growth opportunities.

The Women of HR: A Lean In Circle: This Circle is dedicated to the needs of HR women-leaders who are looking to develop professionally and personally through networking, sharing ideas and volunteering opportunities

The Integration of AI in HR

The HR Source

HELPING GREAT COMPANIES FIND GREAT PEOPLE

In January, The HR Source polled our followers to ask how their companies are leveraging AI in their HR department. As shown below, the integration of AI is certainly real. According to a late 2023 survey of 3,211 professionals by Workable, more than two-thirds see their company increasing their use of AI in their hiring process over the next five years.

Onboarding - 50%
Performance Management - 31%
Employee Development - 13%
Talent Acquisition Tasks - 6%
